
Dean Kiesling

I graduated from Berkner High School in Richardson in 1980, where I was a member of the band and the choir. I was also an active member of the Youth Choir at First Baptist Church. After high school, I attended the University of Texas, where I marched in the Longhorn Band for five years. I earned a Bachelor of Music degree from East Texas Baptist University and a Master of Music degree from Baylor University.

I have been a Texas music educator for 26 years. I have taught band, choir, and elementary music. I have been teaching in Brownwood since 2003, and I have been at Northwest Elementary since 2011.
I am the pianist at First United Methodist Church in Brownwood and an accompanist at Howard Payne University. I am very involved with Brownwood's Lyric Theatre, and I am the treasurer of the Arts Council of Brownwood.

My mother, and my brother and his wife live in Richardson. I have five nieces and nephews. I also have two cats, Lucy and Ethel.
